LONG HAIR MEN.

The Way Massachusetts Protected Against Them In 1899.

The following protest signed by Jo. Radnoti, governor; Thos. Dudley, deputy governor; Richard Bellingham, Richard Saltonstall, Increase Nowell, William Hibbins, Thos. Flint, Rob. Bridges and Simon Broadstreet was published in Massachusetts in 1899:

"Protest against wearing long hair of the governor, etc., of Massachusetts:

"Forasmuch as the wearing of long hair, after the manner of Romaine and barbarous Indians, has begun to invade New England, contrary to the rule of God's word, which says it is a shame for man to wear long hair, as also the commendable custom generally of all the godly of all our nation, until within these few years:

"We, the magistrates, who have signed this paper, for the showing of our own innocence in this behalf, do declare and manifest our dislike and detestation against the wearing of such long hair, as against a thing unclean and unmanly, whereby men do deform themselves and offend good and modest men and do corrupt good manners. We do therefore earnestly treat all the elders of this jurisdiction, as often as they shall see cause, to manifest their zeal against it in their public administrations, and to take care that the members of their respective churches be not defiled therewith; that so, such as prove obstinate, and will not reform themselves, may have God and man to witness against them. The third month 10th day, 1699."

To Be Exact.

"Jane," asked Mrs. Hiram Offen, "are the eggs hatching?"

"Most assuredly not, madam," replied the new servant, lately from Boston, "but I may safely say the water in which the eggs are hatched is."

CHICAGO SHORT OF MEAT, PRICES SOAR

Rise Will Continue, Say Dealers—Supply of Lamb Low at 3 Cents More.

Chicago, June 5.—Meats of all kinds except the poorest cuts of beef have been rising steadily in Chicago for three weeks and dealers say the advance will continue. In some of the poorer sections of the city, retail dealers have not handled a piece of meat except beef for three weeks. Lamb, pork and other meats are beyond the reach of their customers.

Lamb has advanced 3 cents a pound in the last three weeks and the big wholesalers say they cannot get enough at any price to supply the big downtown hotels, cafes and restaurants.

Lises.

[Written in dejection to a baby in a crowded third-class railway carriage.]

Repellent infant! Thing of Fear, Awaunt, aroint thee—come not near! Thy toothless jaws I like not well, Thy dribble—or let loose a yell—Vindictive as a shriek from hell.

At any moment thou art quick To seize a chance of being sick.

Thy dangling hands legs protrude Mottled and creased and much too nude.

Thy stare is meaningless—but rude.

Sinister Being! I declare I'd slay thee, but I do not dare!

I hold thy company accursed. Hencest third-class infant, hast I burst Or have to change and travel first.

And yet—a Purpose I divine Even in such a shape as thine, Least Darwin's teaching be denied Thou com'st to humble Human Pride in which the eggs are hatched is."
